DAMODAR VALLEY CORPORATION

NOTIFICATION

Damodar, the 15th September 1958

No. 10—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 60 of the Damodar Valley Corporation Act, 1948 (XIV of 1948), the Corporation hereby makes, with the previous sanction of the Central Government, the following amendment to the Damodar Valley Corporation (Service) Regulations published with the notification of the Damodar Valley Corporation No. 5 dated the 28th January 1957, namely:—

In the said Regulations,—

I. For clause (1) of Regulation 73, the following clause shall be substituted, namely;

"(1) The earned leave admissible to an employee is—

(i) one twenty-second of the period spent on duty during the first year; and

(ii) one eleventh of the period spent on duty thereafter:

Provided that he will cease to earn such leave when the earned leave due amounts to 180 days."

II. For regulation 84, the following regulation shall be substituted, namely:

"Regulation 84: (1) All leave at the credit of an employee shall lapse on the date of termination of his service in the Corporation by superannuation or otherwise.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in clause (1) above, leave may be granted after the date of termination of his service in the following cases:—

(A) Earned leave due may be granted to an employee after the date of termination of his service for the period for which it was applied for as leave preparatory to retirement in sufficient time before that date and refused in writing in the interest of the service of the Corporation:

Provided that such leave shall not be admissible in the case of resignation for reasons other than reasons of ill-health or other reasons beyond his control;

Provided further that the condition of prior application for leave and its refusal in writing may be waived in individual cases where service is terminated by the Corporation for unfitness of the employee for further service by reason of ill-health, or for reduction of establishment, or for any other reason calling for immediate termination of service.

(B) Earned leave due may, subject to the conditions specified in the Note below, be granted as terminal leave to a temporary employee in the regular establishment, or to an employee appointed on contract basis having been in service for more than one year—

- (a) on completion of the term of his emplacement; or
- (b) on termination of his service due to retrenchment, abolition of post or unfitness for further service for reasons of ill-health or on grounds of administrative convenience as an alternative to the initiation of disciplinary proceedings; or
- (c) on resignation of his post for reasons of ill-health or for other reasons beyond his control; or
- (d) on resignation for reasons other than those mentioned in (c) above;

Provided that the leave admissible under this regulation shall not exceed in cases (a), (b) and (c), the amount of earned leave as can be availed of at a time and in case (d), half the amount of such leave as can be availed of at a time.

Note—(i) The terminal leave shall not be admissible to an employee who is dismissed or removed from service.

- (ii) Re-employed pensioners whose pension was held in abeyance during the period of re-employment shall not be entitled to draw their pension during the period of terminal leave.
- (iii) Where service is terminated on account of retrenchment or abolition of post and the employee concerned is relieved before the expiry of the notice period, such notice or the unexpired portion thereof shall run concurrently with the leave granted.

For the purpose of granting the terminal leave, it is not necessary to extend the post held by the employee concerned to cover the period of the leave granted at the end of his employment."

2. These amendments shall be deemed to have come into force on the 28th January 1957; provided that the past cases of leave actually availed of will not be reopened.

By order,
U. K. GHOSHAL
Secretary
